Key responsibilities of the role will include

- independently acquiring and advising clients about funding opportunities
- identification of suitable funding programs at national (German), EU and state level
- assisting and supporting our clients with applying for subsidies throughout the whole funding process
- analysis of project ideas and development of individual support strategies
- preparation and review of application documents as well as communicating with grantors
- to stay up to date on the various funds, grants and subsidies that are available for businesses.

To be considered for this role you will need

- A university degree, preferably with proven skills in academic or journalistic work (e.g. Bachelor of Arts, social science, economics or law)
- First practical experience in funding advice or in dealing with funding programs
- Network in funding institutions and relevant associations
- Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal with keen attention to complex issues
- Structured, careful and independent way of working
- Strong communication skills, team spirit and a high degree of initiative
- Proficient in MS Office
- Very good written and verbal skills in German and English

Our offer

- A job full of variety and responsibility in a growing company
- The opportunity to actively help shape the company and to contribute your own ideas
- Hybrid work model with on-site work at our Munich office or mainly remote from home
- Flat hierarchies, short decision-making processes and a highly motivated team
- Individual development opportunities and room for personal development

Interested in working with us?

If you have the skills and experience, we are looking for and would like to become part of a dynamic team, we are looking forward to your application (including your earliest possible starting date and salary expectations) via email to bewerbung@the-funding-team.com.
